

News July/August 2011

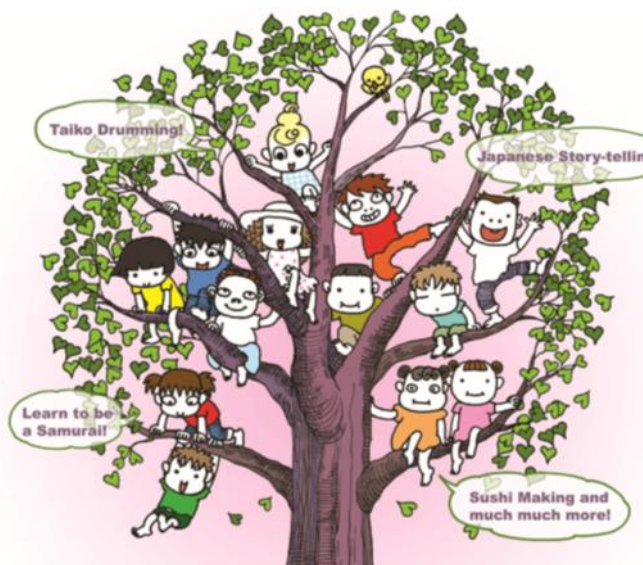

First an apology to members who are getting this TYA News for the first time. We have just updated all our email lists and found that the one used for TYA News has missed a number of newer members. But you can read back numbers on the website (CTRL+Click on the logos above)

A Visioning Day on 1st July was a chance for England members to look hard at how they will organise themselves in future. It was agreed that meetings of the TYA England Committee will remain open to all, as the main value of TYA is solidarity between members. But people are needed to lead on key jobs, like running the website or creating events.

Elections to the TYA-UK Board are under way and self-nominations are accepted up to 5pm on Monday 25 July.

New TYA-UK Board meets in Birmingham on 7th September

Next News Deadline
30 August 2011
paul.harman63@ntlworld.com

With Children For Children event at Unicorn on 19 June raised £4333 for victims of the Tsunami. Thousand Cranes TC raised £974 from sales of origami cranes while on tour.

Our New Website is Live!

Your shows, scripts, reports and news can now be uploaded.

Please note submissions are moderated so there may be a delay in posts appearing.

Here is the link to upload your shows

Can it really be FOR if it's BY and WITH?

If you followed recent debate at Congress and elsewhere about child performers watch this film of a Show for Children in Saudi Arabia.

Read the latest TYA USA News July 2011 ...

And the first Company of Angels Newsletter

Events Diary

14 – 20 May 2012: Washington: New Visions/ New Voices at John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts has assisted development of 80 new plays, musicals, and operas from 72 playwrights and 32 composers working with 51 US and 7 international theatre companies.

The submission deadline for subsidized projects is August 19, 2011.

Until 20 August: London: Polka: Archaeology
Read more in Starcatchers News

Merlin and The Legend of King Arthur

by Kevin Dyer is in Lancaster's Williamson Park Fri 8 July to Sat 13 Aug 2011

Click here for details

Ctrl+click to open links